County team selection process

To be eligible to shoot for Nottinghamshire, archers must be affiliated to Nottinghamshire Archery Society, EMAS and ArcheryGB

Ranking points will be awarded to individuals dependant on the position gained in each qualifying shoot (above), with the highest position scoring 1 and the second highest position scoring 2 etc.

NO MINIMUM SCORES ARE TO BE APPLIED THIS YEAR

Where a tie in ranking points occurs, the scores from the Nottinghamshire County Championship (outdoor) will be used to decide who makes the team.

The county team pool will be announced a week after the final qualifying round. The Nottinghamshire County Archery Squad, from which the County team will be selected, will be made up of those archers who have completed 2 out of 4 of the shoots. No external shoots will be taken into account, you must complete 2 out of 4 of the above shoots.

The selection committee will be made up of County Team Manager
 County Chair
 County Vice Chair x 2

Juniors wishing to shoot for the senior team must shoot appropriate adult rounds for their gender under the above criteria. Their scores can be equated by the Junior Team manager to their age equivalent for the junior team selection using the ArcheryGB Handicap Tables.
